

Seek Volunteer Guide for Organisations – Micro-Volunteering Day 2025

Why List Your Micro-Volunteering Opportunity on Seek Volunteer?

Micro-volunteering offers flexible, bite-sized opportunities for people to make an impact without a long-term commitment. Listing your opportunities on Seek Volunteer helps you:

- Attract new volunteers who want to help but have limited time.
- Reach a wider audience through a trusted volunteer platform.
- Increase visibility for your organisation and cause.

How to List Your Micro-Volunteering Opportunity

Step 1: Log In to Seek Volunteer

1. Visit Seek Volunteer.
2. Click Sign In at the top right corner.
3. Use your organisation's login credentials. If you don't have an account, register your organisation first. Make sure you have completed the connection request. See more in our Feb newsletter if you haven't already.

Step 2: Create a New Opportunity

1. Navigate to "Post an Opportunity" in the dashboard.
2. Select "Micro-Volunteering" as the category.
3. Fill out the following fields:
  - Title: Use a clear, engaging title (e.g., "Write a Thank You Note to a Local Volunteer – 10 Min Task!")
  - Description: Briefly explain the task, why it matters, and how the volunteer can participate.
  - Time Commitment: Indicate that it's a short, flexible activity.
  - Location: Specify if it's in-person, remote, or digital.
  - Skills Needed: If any (e.g., social media, writing, data entry).
  - Benefits for Volunteers: Highlight what they will gain (e.g., making an immediate impact, supporting their community).

Step 3: Review & Publish

1. Double-check all details for accuracy.
2. Click Submit for Approval – Seek Volunteer may review before publishing.

3. Once approved, your listing will be live!
-

Best Practices for Writing an Engaging Listing

- Keep it short & clear – Micro-volunteering is about quick tasks!
  - Use action-oriented language – e.g., “Help us digitise community records in 15 minutes.”
  - Highlight flexibility – e.g., “Complete this task from anywhere in just 5-10 minutes.”
  - Make it fun! – Encourage participation by making it sound easy and impactful.
-

Example Micro-Volunteering Listings

Example 1: Social Media Advocate (Remote, 5-10 min)

 Help spread awareness! Share our campaign on social media and tag three friends to get involved.

- Time commitment: 5-10 minutes.
- How? We provide a ready-made post; you simply share it!
- Impact: Boosts visibility for our cause and encourages community support.

Example 2: Community Cleanup Sprint (In-person, 30 min)

 Make a difference in just 30 minutes! Join our quick cleanup challenge at the local park.

- Where? Meet at the volunteer booth at Great Lake Centre.
  - Supplies provided: Gloves, bags, and refreshments.
  - Impact: Help keep our community clean and green.
-

Key Deadlines & Support

- Micro-Volunteering Day: March 15, 2025
- Deadline to List Opportunities: March 10, 2025
- Contact for Help: Julian Bishop & volunteerglt@gmail.com

Need assistance with your listing? Reach out to Volunteer Great Lake Taupō, and we'll guide you through the process!

---

Let's make Micro-Volunteering Day a success together!